The Shard, London

OBLIX RESTAURANT

LOCATION: The Shard, London, UK

CLIENT: Phelan Construction

VALUE: £200k

Located on the 32nd Floor of the iconic Shard building in London, Oblix Restaurant boasts fantastic panoramic views across the capital city. A variety of natural materials have been utilised to create a warm, earthy space. Gariff were instructed to build and install all bespoke furniture including a large radius bar, drinks displays, feature walls, credenza units and waiter stations. One particularly striking element of the contract was the creation of an oversized Zebrano wood book display unit. The team at Gariff were honoured to be part of a contract within one of the world's most distinguishable skyscrapers.
